● Share your name, state, and role/subject taught in the chat!

● What do you feel are the greatest areas of need for your students in terms of their social emotional learning?
Challenges

- Toll of the pandemic on students’ mental health
- Rise of higher rates of violence and misbehavior, and national youth mental health crisis
- Adjusting to the changes in their schools and communities and significant loss of learning time over past 2+ years
- Skills like self-awareness, self-control, and interpersonal skills are vital for school, work, and life success

Mental Health as the Key to Addressing Learning Loss

● 1 in 4 young adults say they’ve considered suicide because of the pandemic [Source - CDC]

● Schools and communities in the U.S. have already reported cases of increased fear and anxiety, online bullying, depression, sickness, loss, grief, and increased cases of abuse. [Source - PACE]
“There is a direct link between mental health and academic performance. When a child is worried about a parent being unemployed, or whether the family will become homeless, how can they learn to add? Or read?

Students will not be able to move forward until their mental health needs are met.”

- Jeannine Topalian, president of the California Association of School Psychologists, psychologist in Los Angeles Unified School District

How can you improve school culture?

Some tried & true suggestions

• Set the tone
• Engage Students
  – Reach out to the “undiscovered” leaders
  – Listen to their ideas
  – Create opportunities for them to mentor other students
• Doesn’t have to be complicated
• Can piggyback off other school activities
Back to School Decorations
MARVELous Monday & Thankful Thursday

Right: Dress as a superhero and be a hero in your community.

For example: pick up trash around the school.

Below: Staff and students show appreciation towards one another through fun activities like switching dress style for a day!
Warm-Hearted Wednesday

Task: Show others how to spread kindness and get input into how students receive kindness to increase happiness at school and awareness of everyday kindness.
How can you improve class culture?

In my classroom, we:

• Build relationships
  – 4Hs - Greeting students
• Sharing my own story
• Safe Zone Pledge
• Expectation setting
• Focusing on experiences outside the classroom, even online
SEL Activities

GoNoodle
A website that engages kids in movement and mindfulness activities

Journaling
Daily writing in a relaxed format provides a way to explore thoughts, feelings, and new ideas

Self-Compassion
A quick self-compassion practice that can be applied throughout the day whenever difficult emotions arise.

SEL Video Lessons
6-minute SEL Lessons that include a short video and discussion questions.

Write Down & Rip Up
Have your child write down their expectations and insecurities, rip them up, and throw them away.

Best Possible Self
Students write answers to questions about what they want their lives to be at age 40.
